I would offer... if it was YOU in each case, then yes, the stranger is the same person. If you only started playing with say Ultima IV... then must have been someone else. ;)

The protagonist of #Ultima I, II, and III is usually later referred to as the "Stranger from Another World". Whether this person is the same as the one who became the Avatar, or even the same person in all three games, is often the subject of debate.

Yes! And, while moon gates and lunar rifts can transform you physically, and take you to various planes of existence in time and space, it's always still you, your essence within the body you inhabit. Your avatar walks all worlds, and you became the avatar of virtue!
